Milestone Family,

As a pastor, I want to help you grow in your relationship with God. Developing a lifestyle of prayer is key to our growth. We developed this resource to help you and give you quick access to what the Bible says about some of life's most pressing issues.

I hope you will pray, memorize, and continually read these passages of Scripture on an ongoing basis. As you confess God's Word, you'll train your thoughts, your emotions, and your attitude to agree with what God has spoken in His Word. Join me in prayer for 2023.

What is fasting?

The goal of fasting is not just to do without food; it is to draw nearer to God. The definition of a biblical fast is “to restrict food for a spiritual purpose.” Biblical fasting always has to do with restricting food for a spiritual purpose. Fasting is not just an exercise for the super-spiritual, but it should be a periodic discipline in the life of every believer.

The constant demands and pressures of daily life on your mind, will, and emotions can weigh you down and cause you to lose focus. This will make you feel spiritually sluggish and desensitized.

FASTING IS A WAY FOR YOU TO CELEBRATE
THE GOODNESS AND MERCY OF GOD AND PREPARE YOUR SOUL TO EXPAND AND CONTAIN THE FRESH NEW PURPOSES AND WORK GOD DESIRES TO BRING INTO YOUR LIFE.

Choosing the Right Fast for You

Your personal fast should present a level of challenge, but it is very important to know your own body, know your options and, most importantly, seek God in prayer and follow what the Holy Spirit leads you to do.

TYPES OF FASTS

A normal fast is when only water is consumed. This would be the type practiced by Elijah (see 1 Kings 19:8) and Jesus (see Matthew 4). They abstained from food for 40 days.

A partial fast is when some foods are restricted. Two of the most common partial fasts are:

A juice fast is when vegetable and fruit juices are consumed instead of solid food. Some include whey protein in their liquid plan as well. This is a popular and effective fast. Substituting liquids for one or two meals is an alternative.

A Daniel fast is based on the fasting principles of the prophet in Daniel 1 and 10. Daniel 1 states that he ate only vegetables and drank only water, and Daniel 10 states that he ate no rich (or choice) foods, as well as no meat or wine. The foundation of the Daniel fast is fruits and vegetables. Visit daniel-fast.com to find more information about this fast.

Remember, the power of fasting has less to do with food than with setting yourself apart for a specific period of time to focus more on the Lord, prayer, and worship.
